the Hobbit

P.4:

- notes on page 5

hobbit adventures were unrespectable

• Women in his mother's family went on adventures that were looked up by family (Took Clan)

• People in Took family not entirely hobbit like

- Took family not as respectable as Baggins but richer.

* • Bilbo inherited some of the Took family adventure

• his mother went on adventures before his parents married but never once they were married

(Bilbo)

He lived in the hobbit hole his father built

Page 6

- Gandalf was a true adventurer

- he has friends with the Old Took w/ the Dwarves.

- he began to think adventures weren't that Bad

P. 35

they went ~~passed~~ ^{in to} gloomy Dark parts as they got further and further away from home

When it was Bad weather he regretted going on the adventures and wanted to go home

P. 38 7th

- Bilbo was sent to investigate things because he was the burglar. ^{light one} (trolls) ^{light one} ^{night}

C3

- trolls hate Dwarves

Gandalf saves dwarves from trolls

P. 55

Gandalf leads them to Rivendal.

- they search for the path to Rivendal
- Elves in Rivendal
- Dwarves don't like elves because Elves laugh at them
- Elves know a lot about going on around the area and about many Peoples adventures

P. 56

- Bilbo was amazed by the size of the Mountains, they looked mysterious. he wished he was back home.

- Bilbo loved elves even though he was a little frightened

P. 57

- out in the wild was dangerous
- Stone giants fought in the mountains

P.65

- "There is nothing like looking if you want to find something" often you find something, but it is not

Hobbit Notes

11/13/23

P.1

- they went into a cave and it was a goblin trap in the mountain. But goblins got out
- the goblins were going to eat them
- That was the last they saw of the horses and these bugs
- goblins are nasty and can tunnel as well as Dwarves

P.2

- they were being chased by ~~the~~ the goblins and he ~~was~~ was wishing he hadn't come on the adventure. Then one of the Dwarves said he wished Bilbo hadn't come either.

- Bilbo was miserable because it was cold, dark, and he was hungry
- he found the ring in the dark when he got separated from the group.

When he got trapped in the cave he kept going, he didn't just give up.

Quote from page 67

"He tilted again and again for his nice bright hobbit hole. Not for the last time."

Page 74

- "The blink of road torches could be seen behind them in the tunnel they were following and they were getting deadly tired."

"Why, why did I ever leave my hobbit-hole!" said poor Mr. Piggins bumping up and down on Bombur's back.

"Why, why did I ever bring a wretched little hobbit on a treasure hunt!" said poor Bombur, who was fat, and staggered along with sweat dripping down his nose in his heat and terror.

Running away from Goblins in the tunnels.

P. 100

- Bilbo was lost after he got out of caves, with nothing with him.

P. 1

- They were going fast and Bilbo was unhappy and hurting (get a quote)

not direct quote

"Bilbo said 'Now I know what a piece of bacon feels like when it is suddenly picked out of the pan on a fork and put back on the staff.'"

P. 120 after being saved by eagles, making good by fire

"Soon Bilbo's stomach was feeling full and comfortable again, and he felt he could sleep contentedly, though really he would have liked a loaf of better better than bits of meat toasted on sticks." → He slept so soundly curled up on the hard rock then ever he had done on his feather bed in his own little hole at home. - he dreamt of his house that night, and was looking for something he couldn't find or remember - he got up the next morning to put on "his kettle" but he wasn't at home

lots of memories of home on pages 122-123

Some good quotes too.

Hobbit notes

- Got shelter in Beorn's house + food

P. 143

~~to this he had said something like~~
"The hobbit felt quite crushed, and as there ~~seemed~~ seemed nothing else to do he did go to bed; while the Dwarves were still singing songs he dropped to sleep..."

P. 146

after talking to Beorn ~~to a~~
"But their spirits sank at his grave words, and they all felt that the adventure was far more dangerous than they had thought, while all the time, even as they passed all the perils of the road, the Dragon was waiting at the end." However they still went

P. 50

after splitting up food between them
"Though Bilbo thought his lot was ~~very~~ very heavy, and did not at all like the idea of trudging for miles and miles with all that on his back."

good quote on page 151 that talks about Bilbo's Bravery (made in ~~the~~ Book)

P. 153
he didn't want to go into the forest, but it was the best way through.

P. 154

"Even the Dwarves felt it, who were used to tunnelling, and lived at times for long whiles without light of the sun; but the hobbit, who liked holes to make a house in but not spend summer days in, felt that he was being slowly suffocated."

Page 150 good quote

after losing his friends in Mirkwood
"So he sat himself down with his back to a tree and not for the last time fed to thinking about of his far distant hobbit-hole with its beautiful pantries. He was deep in thoughts of pica and eggs and toast ~~and~~ and butter when he felt..."

good quote on page 70

Bilbo changed ↗

then on page 189 The Dwarves loved Bilbo

good quote →

P.181
para 21

In fact they pressed his so much that Bilbo began to feel there really was something of a Bold adventurer about himself after all, though he would have felt a lot bolder still if there had been anything to eat!

- Wood elves were not wicked. Authority.
- loved stars
- more Dwarves, less wise
- they were still good people however
- elf king loves treasure

Good quote about wanting to go home (marked on audio book)

P.206

- They were in lake town and can see lonely mountains
- The lands had changed a lot since the Dwarves lived there

The king of turned into a leader ~~more~~ strong after the Markwade.

When they got to the lonely mountains and found the Door that they could not open, they were ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~glum~~ ^{glum} (good quote) ~~marked on audio book~~ ^{many}

~~Bilbo had ^{not} ~~not~~ didn't want to go to happen so he gave the corker some to the elven king of the forest~~

P.325

When they reached ^{his} home he said "roads go ever ever on, over rock and under tree, by caves where never shine has shown, by streams that never find the sea. over snow by winter south come through the merry flowers of June, over grass and over stone and under mountains in the moon, the road goes ever on under clouds and under stars. yet feet that wandering have gone, turn at last to their home afar. eyes that fire and sword have seen and horror in the halls of stone. look at last on meadows green and trees and hills the long label known."

Tip: 3x B
he was very happy after that.

The Hobbit Thesis Statement.

Bilbo always kept going, he never gave up, at first he hated it and by the end he loved it, but when things were hard he never gave up

- I think the part of J.R.R. Tolkien's message is to never give up and Bilbo was sort of a role model, his adventurous spirit came out and he changed. This could also be a message to his kids and others to keep going when things get hard.
